

MidSouth Capital, Inc. is committed to your financial well being, and protecting the privacy and security of the information that you share with us is part of that commitment. Our policy as it relates to the privacy of consumer information is very straightforward. We share no non-public information with any non-affiliated third parties. Only those persons who need to so as part of their job responsibilities are authorized to have access to your account information. We do not sell client list or individual information. We do exchange certain information about our clients with selected credit reporting agencies when it is legally required (such as a subpoena) and to prevent fraud or to comply with a legally permitted inquiry by a government agency or regulator. We strive to maintain complete and accurate information about you and your account. If you believe that our records contain inaccurate or incomplete information please let us know immediately. We will correct any inaccuracies as quickly as possible.
